

One day cricket tea

Testimonial

"Sundays in our house in summer often mean trekking down to the local cricket club to watch my son play. Cricket matches also mean tea duty.

Each week players (AKA mums and dads) bring either a selection of fruit, sweet or savoury choices.

Last week we were on savoury duty and made sausage rolls (loaded with hidden vegies and reduced fat pastry) and quiches cups. Instead of pastry you roll out bread and line a muffin tray to form the base. They were a hit!"
